

Song order:

Chorus

V1

V2 Chorus

V3

Chorus

Plains of Emu

$\text{♩} = 70$

Soprano
Oh fare-well, oh fare-well. Fare thee well.

Alto
Oh fare-well, oh fare thee well. Fare thee well.

Tenor
8
Oh fare-well, oh fare thee well. Fare thee well.

Bass
Oh fare-well, fare - well. Fare thee well.

8

S.
Oh fare-well The Plains of E - mu.

A.
my lov-er. The Plains of E - mu.

T.
8
my coun-try. The Plains of E - mu.

B.
my kin-dred The Plains of E - mu.

16
S.

Oh fare - well my coun - try, my kin - dred, my
The Iron - bark, the watt - les and gum - trees ex - Dearest Mo - ther, thy love - from my bo - som shall 20

S.

lo - ver. Each morn - ing and even - ing is sac red to you. And I tend - ing their shades un - der which rests the shy - kanga roo shall be ne - ver de - part, - but shall flour - ish un - dri ven and true. For -

23
S.

toil the long day - with - out shel - ter or co - ver and felled by the blest - who have hope - o'er them bend - ing to hard was my fate - far from thee - to be dri - ven, but fell the tall - gum, - the black butt - ed and blue. Full ease their rude - toil - though far ex - iled from you. A - force - gained the day and now I suf - fer for you. Oh

27
S.

29
S. oft - en I think of and talk - of thee E - rin: Thy las I've not hope, peace or hon - our to grace - me. Each spare her the tear and no charge - lay up - on - her, and 31

S.

heath cov - ered moun - tains are fresh - in my view. - Thy feel - ing was crushed in the bud - as it grew. - While weep - not my No - ra, her tears - to re - new. - But 33

S.

glens, - lakes and ri - vers, Loch Conn - and Kil - kerr - an while nev - er is stamped on the chains - that em - brace - me and cher - ish her age, un - til night - clo - ses on - her and 35

S.

chained - to the soil - on the Plains of E - mu.
cease - less my pain - on the Plains of E - mu.
think - of the swain - who still thinks - but of you.